

Springfield Public
LIBRARY
Where Minds Grow

Springfield Public Library's 17th Annual Puppet Festival!

Join us for these fun events.

Admission is free thanks to our generous sponsors!

CELESTE ROSE'S Puppet Making Workshop

Create a Puppet and a Play • For Ages 8-13 • Sign-up begins Feb. 1

Five Classes: Feb. 27, March 6, 13, and 19, from 12:30-3:30 pm; with a performance Saturday, March 20 at 2 pm.

Pre-registration required. Sponsored by the Springfield Arts Commission.

CELESTE'S KIDS

present

Sleeping Beauty

The festival's workshop kids will present an original version of this favorite fairy tale, complete with princess, king, queen, fairies, a witch and a handsome prince, along with music.

Sponsored by the Springfield Arts Commission.

All ages • Library Lobby
Saturday, March 20 at 2 pm

DRAGON THEATER

PUPPETS presents

Home Grown Heroes

A villain has a bad idea! He wants to stop the world from having creative minds. A band of super heroes must work as a team to stop him! Sponsored by the Cressey Family Trust.

All ages • Library Lobby
Tuesday, March 23 at 3 pm

OREGON SHADOW THEATRE presents

Anansi the Spider

An original shadow play based on African folktales. Shadow puppets and live music performed by Deb Chase and Mick Doherty

Anansi the Spider is clever, witty, foolish and greedy. He loves to eat and he hates to work. Anansi plays tricks on the whole village and causes a lot of trouble.

Sponsored by the Springfield Utility Board and Kathy Jensen.

Ages 4 and up • Wildish Theater, 630 Main St.
Saturday, March 27 at 1 & 3 pm
Seating is limited. Doors open 30 minutes before shows.